

[REDACTED]

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: 24 August 2021 15:01
To: Kellogg Centre - GCHU
Subject: Commission on Creating Healthy Cities - call for evidence

Good afternoon,

Please see below for some links to documents and lectures in response to the call for evidence by the Commission on Creating Healthy Cities.

- Paper (2021) Leveraging built environment interventions to equitably promote health during and after COVID-19 in Toronto, Canada | Health Promotion International | Oxford Academic \(oup.com\)
- Keynote at Fit Cities Fit Towns Canada “Improving social connections through the built environment” <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SvT4lg4scTk> . Conference.
- Green Paths to Mental Health report series (2016). 1) scoping review 2) theoretical framework 3) neighbourhood income analysis 4) Walk Lab

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

CCHC Call for Evidence

---

Response ID	Start date	Completion date
[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]

1	Title	[REDACTED]
1.a	If you selected Other, please specify:
2	First Name(s)	[REDACTED]
3	Surname(s)	[REDACTED]
4	Contact email address	[REDACTED]
4.a	Additional email address (please complete this if you are submitting evidence on behalf of someone else)
5	Location	Canada (CA)
5.a	If you selected Other, please specify:
5.b	City	Toronto
6	Institution/Company/Organisation	Faculty of Environmental and Urban Change, York University

7	Summary of evidence	* Built environment interventions to equitably promote health in cities: (includes three considerations for built environment interventions to promote health equitably: (i) addressing structural determinants of health and embedding anti-racist intersectional principles, (ii) revisiting tactical urbanism as a health promotion tool and (iii) rethinking community engagement processes through equity-based placemaking and 4 interventions: street design that prioritizes pedestrians, protected cycling infrastructure, access to inclusive green space and safe, affordable housing.) * Exploring relationship between urban green spaces and mental health and well-being (includes review and walk lab) * Improving social connectedness through the built environment
8	Please select which exposure(s) your evidence relates to. Further explanation on these exposures can be found on a PDF file here. Please select all that apply.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Planning (e.g. density, green spaces, housing, transport, urban design etc.)</li> <li>• Accessibility (e.g. access to healthcare, facilities, parks etc.)</li> <li>• Deprivation (e.g. income, poverty, diversity etc.)</li> <li>• Society (social networks &amp; relations) (e.g. human interactions, violence, crime etc.)</li> </ul>
9	Please select which outcome(s) the submitted research relates to. Please select all that apply.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wellbeing</li> <li>• Health (physical): (e.g. non-communicable diseases, communicable diseases, behaviours etc.)</li> <li>• Mental Health</li> <li>• Lived experiences: (e.g. social health, social wellbeing, social behaviour etc.)</li> </ul>
10	Method of evidence submission: If you need to provide further evidence, please submit this either digitally via email or hard copy via post.	Digital (via email to gchu@kellogg.ox.ac.uk )
11	How did you hear about the Commission on Creating Healthy Cities and the associated call for evidence?	listserv at York University